01 / THE OFFER

Give AI something worth building.

A practical $9 starting point for useful business projects.

AssetSprint 50 combines one saved business brief with 50 complete build prompts, each with a materials checklist, specific quality checks and a refinement prompt. The downloaded workspace, PDF playbook, start-here guide, seven-day planner, five editable starters and example service page form the complete front end.

PRODUCT	ONE PAYMENT	COMMISSION*

Client Studio (optional)	$47	50%

*Subject to WarriorPlus deductions, approval, attribution, refunds and payout rules. Each product has a 30-day refund period. No EPC, earnings or conversion result is claimed.

AssetSprint 50

ONE BUSINESS BRIEF. 50 USEFUL BUILDS.

Give AI something worth building.

The complete toolkit · $9

For ChatGPT Work and Codex.

AI access separate. Independent product.

Launch: Friday 27 November 2026 at 12:00 a.m. CST (UTC-6).

UK: 6:00 a.m. GMT. Midnight at the start of 27 November. Contact Andie for review access.

02 / THE POSITIONING

AI in the headline. Clarity in the explanation.

Lead with the useful business outcome.

Show a concrete job: a landing page, a workbook, a customer help pack or a useful report. Demonstrate how the workspace turns business context into a tailored starting prompt. Then explain the separate AI session and the review needed to finish the work.

Where ChatGPT and Codex fit

The new ChatGPT desktop app includes Chat, Work and Codex. Work is intended for longer research, analysis and finished deliverables. Codex remains focused on software development and technical work. The enhanced AssetSprint guides cover ChatGPT Work and Codex, matched to the task.

Many plain-text prompts can be adapted for ChatGPT Work or another capable AI assistant. Do not claim that all 50 workflows work in ordinary Chat, every free plan or every AI tool. The selected experience needs the file, document, browser, coding or connected-service tools required by the task. Access depends on the buyer's account and workspace.

What the buyer is purchasing

A downloaded prompt workspace and practical reference resources. The toolkit prepares prompts; it does not generate finished assets inside the application. No AI subscription, model, credits, API access, hosting or third-party services are included. No API key is required to open the prompt workspace itself.

A short, accurate description

"AssetSprint 50 is a $9 toolkit with 50 practical business workflows, a personalised prompt workspace, guides and editable starters. The enhanced guides explain when to use ChatGPT Work or Codex. AI access is separate."

Before promoting

• Obtain approval to promote and use your official affiliate link for this offer. See the live JV page for the confirmed launch schedule and current access details.

• Open the actual customer files before reviewing them. Demonstrate real controls and source material. Label fictional examples and disclose any free review copy.

• Explain the $9 front end, the optional $27 and $47 upgrades, separate AI access, permitted use and 30-day refunds. Buyers can use the front end without either upgrade.

• Use a clear commission disclosure. Send promotions only to audiences you are authorised to contact and follow the relevant platform and email rules.

• Do not invent testimonials, results, buyer counts, earnings, EPCs, urgency or deadlines. Do not imply that the product finds clients or runs a business automatically.

• Do not distribute paid customer packs as affiliate bonuses or claim PLR, MRR or resale rights. Read affiliate-terms.txt for the full supplied promotion terms.

Suggested disclosure: “I may earn a commission if you purchase through my affiliate link.” Add a review-copy disclosure when applicable.
